UNSETTLING LANDSCAPE: EXPERIMENTAL FILMS BY SOUTHEAST ASIAN WOMEN FILMMAKERS

FREE SCREENING!

SATURDAY, JANUARY 27, 7:30 P.M

BILLY WILDER THEATER
 AT THE HAMMER MUSEUM

Showcasing a collection of recent experimental works by Southeast Asian women filmmakers, Unsettling Landscape focuses on short films and videos that critically engage with questions of land, landscape and the myriad forms of mediation that have been used to capture their image. Unearthing the deep time of tectonic shifts and Animist belief systems, unraveling statist development narratives and unlearning colonial ways of knowing, these films unsettle the complex relations between lens and land, offering new possibilities for spatial transformation on screen.
